Governor,

I know you're aware of the situation with Brian and his son. I wanted to let you know that I'm heading to Juneau tonight and I'll be there when the office opens in the morning. I've ask Mike Nizich to request HSS grief counselors be on call to assist staff coping with the situation as it continues tomorrow.

I'll be working with my managers to provide for staff needs, and to ensure that all Treasury issues are covered. I'll keep you informed as events progress.

Please keep Brian and his son in your prayers as we await what we still hope is good news.

-Pat

Subject: Deputy Commissioner Brian Andrews - missing

Governor:

It's just crossing the Juneau newswires here, but apparently Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Brian Andrews and his son are missing and overdue from a trip in a Cessna 182 to a lake about 20 miles from Juneau. USCG is searching with a helicopter now. It's been pretty foggy here all day. The Juneau Empire has some information posted on its website.

Subject: 08.12.08 Arctic Parliamentarian Remarks

Governor,

Here are your remarks for the Arctic Parliamentarian conference in Fairbanks on Tuesday. Melissa will have all your information printed out for you and ready to go. I will get the event info to you tomorrow, as I am still waiting for the final agenda from Sen. Murkowski's office. I should have it to you no later than tomorrow afternoon.

CONTEXT FOR THE REMARKS: you will be speaking at the Arctic Parliamentarian's conference in Fairbanks on Tuesday, August 12. Sen. Lisa Murkowski will be there, along with parliamentarian delegates from Canada, Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, Russia and Sweden. About 150 are expected to be present. The delegates are meeting for three days to hear speakers on the three key topics of:

-Human Health in the Arctic

-Adaptation to Climate Change

-Development of Energy Resources in the Arctic

I had originally been told you had 15 minutes to speak; I have since been informed that you and the three others giving welcome speeches are actually LIMITED TO FIVE MINUTES. As you will be so short on time, your remarks focus mainly on the topic of Arctic energy resource development.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns you may have. Thanks so much!

S~

I heard in a public forum last week that Dave Donnelly (Department of Labor) solicited bribes as an elected official. This public statement was made by Julie Kitka. David D. is still working for you. I have no personal feeling about this person at all. This is for your information.

Please let me know if you get this message.

Good Night, Take Care ~
